Cable Despatches.

FLORENCE, February 15.—Farragut dined with Victor Emanuel to-day. His alleged object is the acquirement of a naval station in the Mediterranean.

LONDON, February 15.—Earl Derby is very ill. Sir G. Shee, Judge of the Queen's Bench, is dead.

News Items.

CHARLESTON, February 15.—Arrived—ship R. C. Winthrop, Liverpool. Sailed—steamers Charleston and Saragossa, New York; the brig Union, Barcelona.

MEMPHIS, February 15.—A negro shot a soldier to-day, for insulting the negro's wife.

LITTLE ROCK, February 15.—The Arkansas Convention has adjourned, subject to the call of its President.

RICHMOND, February 15.—Judge Underwood to-day remanded Churchwell Combs to the custody of the military. He decided that Congress, which was the war-making power, has not yet declared peace, and the country being in a state of armistice, the civil courts have no right to take prisoners out of military custody. The case goes up to the Supreme Court.

Gen. Schofield issued several orders about registration. One orders a new registration in Richmond March 2, and directs that where a person has held a United States office and then voted voluntarily for secession, he is disfranchised.

HAVANA, February 15.—The revolution in the Southern part of Hayti has become general. General Salnave, at present Minister to the European Courts, has been proclaimed President, vice Salnave.

WASHINGTON, February 15.—The Senate was not in session to-day. The House resumed the consideration of the Kentucky case, and a resolution was adopted, informing the Governor of Kentucky that the seat was vacant. The Grant-Hancock correspondence was presented. Grant's last letter to Hancock says: "If your order removing the City Council has been executed and the new appointees are in, you need not suspend the orders as directed." The removed comprise two white and seven colored members.

Internal revenue receipts, to-day, $406,000; of the week, $3,000,000; year, $123,500,000.

It is stated that Sherman telegraphs, regretting his nomination, and deprecates his confirmation as Brevet General, and expressing a disinclination to assume command of the new division, with headquarters at Washington.

The Reconstruction Conventions.

CHARLESTON, February 15.—The Convention was mainly occupied to-day with the discussion of a resolution, asking Congress to loan the State $1,000,000, for the purpose of purchasing lands for the landless.

RALEIGH, February 15.—The Convention, to-day, was engaged on the Bill of Rights; among other sections passed, was one pledging the faith of the State, for the payment of its public debt, other than that incurred in aid of rebellion. Durham offered a section prohibiting marriages between whites and negroes, which was tabled, and thus virtually voted down.

Assignee's Sale.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of South Carolina. IN THE MATTER OF R. S. MOORE, SURVIVOR, BANKRUPT—IN BANKRUPTCY.

BY virtue of an order obtained from W. J. Clawson, Register in Bankruptcy of said Court, we will expose to public sale, on the FIRST MONDAY in March next, at York Court House, South Carolina, the REAL ESTATE of R. S. Moore, survivor of Moore & Rainey, who has been adjudged a bankrupt upon his own petition, consisting of that valuable corner LOT, situate near the Court House, in the town of Yorkville, South Carolina, measuring 30 feet front on Main (or Congress) street, and 130 feet on Liberty street, on which is a large and well-constructed three-story Brick Building, with tin roof, fronting on Main (or Congress) street 30 feet, and running West on Liberty street 100 feet. In the first or lower story of this building is one of the most convenient and best arranged Store-rooms in the up-country. The second story is well suited for a family residence, sleeping rooms or offices. The third story, in addition to other rooms, contains a large Hall, which has been used for public exhibitions, &c. Underneath the building is a commodious Cellar, and in the rear of the building, on the premises, is a good two-story Frame Kitchen. This property is very desirable, because of its being located on the corner of the principal business street, and is known to be the best Business Stand in Yorkville. Possession will be given immediately. Terms cash, in currency. Purchaser to pay for papers and stamps.
